15 NET ASSET VALUE

15.1 The Net Asset Value of the Company and the price in respect of Participating Shares shall be determined by the Manager (or any person retained by the Manager to provide such services) based on latest available prices on each Valuation Day. Should the Manager be unable to carry out a valuation exercise as a result of any cause beyond its reasonable control ("Force Majeure Event"), the Net Asset Value of the Company shall be valued as soon as reasonably possible after the removal of the Force Majeure Event, it being understood that such valuation shall take place only on a Business Day.

15.2 The Net Asset Value of the company means the total assets of the Company, including all cash, cash equivalents and other securities (each valued at fair market value and which are further described in Article 16 below), less the total liabilities of the Company (valued at fair market value) subject to the amortization of the organisational and initial offering fees and expenses of the Company.

15.3 The NAV per Share in respect of Participating Shares shall be calculated by dividing the NAV of the Company attributable to that class by the total number of shares of that class outstanding on the Valuation Day. Any changes in assets and liabilities and in the number of Participating Shares will be recorded in the books not later than the first Valuation Day following the date of transaction.

15.4 The Board (or the person appointed by it as aforesaid) may, at its discretion, establish such method of valuation for the purposes of this Article as it considers would reflect value generally or in particular markets or market conditions and is in accordance with good accounting practice.

15.5 Any calculations made pursuant to these presents shall be made by or on behalf of the Board and shall (except in the case of manifest error) be binding on all persons.

16 PORTFOLIO VALUATION

16.1 Foreign fixed income securities and non-exchange traded derivatives are normally valued on the basis of quotes obtained from brokers and dealers or pricing services using data reflecting the earlier closing of the principal markets for those securities. Prices obtained from independent pricing services use information provided by market makers or estimates of market values obtained from yield data relating to investments or securities with similar characteristics. Certain fixed income securities purchased on a delayed delivery basis are marked to market daily until settlement at the forward settlement date. Short-term investments having a maturity of 90 days or less are generally valued at amortized cost when prices are not available from independent pricing services. Exchange traded options, futures and options on futures are valued at the settlement price determined by the relevant exchange.

- 16.2 Investments initially valued in currencies other than the US dollar are converted to the US dollar using exchange rates obtained from pricing services. As a result, the NAV of the shares of the Company may be affected by changes in the value of currencies in relation to the US dollar. When forward currency contracts are involved, the Company will use the spot rates as provided by data providers and adjust them for the market determined forward points to reflect the gain / loss from the forward currency contract.
- 16.3 Securities and other assets for which market quotes are not readily available are valued at fair value as determined in good faith by the Board or persons acting at their direction.
- 16.4 The Company will be priced with accrual on holdings up to and including the day of valuation.
- 16.5 Any calculations made pursuant to these presents shall be made by or on behalf of the Board and shall (except in the case of manifest error) be binding on all persons.

17 REDEMPTIONS

be deemed suspended in accordance with this Constitution. In selling the requisite assets, the Board shall give due consideration to the interests of the holders of Participating Shares of the Company as a whole.

- 17.3 The Board or the Manager may from time to time determine a dealing deadline applicable on each Dealing Day and Redemption Request forms received and accepted by the Company or the Manager by such dealing deadline on any Dealing Day shall be processed and the Participating Shares redeemed at that Dealing Day's Redemption Price. Redemption Request forms received and accepted by the Company or the Manager after such dealing deadline on any Dealing Day may, at the sole and absolute discretion of the Company or Manager, be processed and Participating Shares redeemed at that Dealing Day's Redemption Price or, otherwise, shall be processed and Participating Shares redeemed at the following Dealing Day's Redemption Price.

- 17.6 Where a Redemption Request relates to a portion only of shares held by an Applicant and if the redemption of such shares would have the effect of causing the Applicant to hold shares of the Company the value of which is less than a minimum holding (as may be determined by the Company from time to time), the Company shall have the right to redeem the total number of shares held by the Applicant as at the date of the Redemption Request.
- 17.7 In cases where Participating Shares to which the Redemption Request relates have been paid for by cheque or by standing order the Company needs not be obliged to redeem the relevant shares until the proceeds of that cheque or that standing order have been paid by the paying bank and collected for the credit of the Company.
- 17.8 Where the Company has elected to proceed with the redemption of Participating Shares, the Manager shall, save for the circumstances set forth in Article 17.2, within seven (7) Business Days of the applicable Dealing Day, direct the paying agent to cause to be paid to the Applicant the Redemption Proceeds and the Manager shall use its best endeavours to ensure that a sufficient amount of the Company's assets are available in cash to enable such payment to be made.
- 17.9 The Redemption Price of each Participating Share shall be the NAV per Share.
- 17.10 If the determination of the Redemption Price is suspended by reason of a declaration by the Board, the right of an Applicant to have its/his shares redeemed pursuant to this Article shall be similarly suspended.
- 17.11 Upon the redemption of shares being effected pursuant to these presents, the Applicant shall cease to be entitled to any rights in respect thereof.

17.12 Payment of the Redemption Proceeds shall be made net of any fees or other applicable charges in the currency in which the Participating Shares are denominated or such other currency as the Board may from time to time otherwise determine.

18 COMPULSORY ACQUISITION OR TRANSFER

18.1 No person other than a Qualified Investor shall be or remain registered as a holder of Participating Shares and the Board may upon an application for, or transfer of, Participating Shares or at any other time require such evidence to be furnished to it in this connection as it shall in its discretion deem sufficient.

18.2 Any holder of Participating Shares which is not, or ceases to be, a Qualified Investor, or which is in breach of any law or requirement of any country or governmental authority or by virtue of which such holder is not otherwise qualified to hold such shares, such holder of Participating Shares shall forthwith notify the Company of the fact that it is not, or has ceased to be, a Qualified Investor, or is in breach of any law or requirement of any country or governmental authority or by virtue of which such holder is not otherwise qualified to hold such Participating Shares .
